PLEASE JOIN US ...

- Meet your child's teacher and school administration.
- See firsthand what scholars will be learning.
Get a glimpse of the timetable, routine and curriculum breakdown of what will be covered throughout the year.
- Understand homework expectations and evaluation practices.
Learn about homework and organizational expectations.

Get familiar with your child's learning environment.

Presentations will be in the classrooms

This is an opportunity to sit in their seat, literally!

- Learn about the teacher's communication strategy.
By meeting the teacher firsthand you will get a sense of their teaching style as well as their communication strategy.
- Be informed on school policies and rules.
Use this time to get information on school safety routines, as well as pick-up and drop off expectations.
- Find out how to get involved and volunteer.
If you're interested in volunteering, use this evening as a chance to learn how to become involved in your child's school.
- Send your child a message that you care.
This may be the most important reason to attend.
You'll show your child that you are interested in their experiences as a Balmoral scholar.
